I'm doing a project on the entertainment industry around the world. Could you tell me about a popular TV programme in your country? I'd like to know why you think this programme is popular, who it's mainly for, and whether you think it will continue to be popular in the future?

Thanks!

Question

Dear Jamie,

How are you doing? I hope you are OK. What an interesting project the one that you are making me participate in. There are many programmes that are popular nowadays, but I think that there is one that will never be old-fashioned, "Married with children".

It is a programme that was made in 2004 here in Argentina, and had a wonderful impact on the society. The programme is based on a family with two children, they live in a big but untidy house, the mother does not cook, work or even clean the house, the father is a man who sells shoes, but he hates his job. The only thing that matters to everyone in the family, except for the father, is the money. All these aspects and the jokes they make give the programme a comic aspect.

It was really popular in 2004, and today, the TV is repeating all the seasons again and it is having the same popularity as it had at that time. I think it is because of the jokes and because of the way they live. It is mainly for people from 14 years or older, because there are some of the jokes that younger people wouldn't understand.

Finally, after analyzing all this, I can say that it will continue to have the same popularity over and over again. If TV keeps on repeating the seasons, people will continue watching them.

I hope this opinion is useful for your project Jamie. When you finish, tell me how it was. And if you need anything else don't doubt in asking me for help. It would be a really rewarding experience for me to help you more if you need. I will call you in some weeks to ask you how are you doing.
